Ask the question

'Are you up to date with your flu and COVID-19 vaccinations?'

Ask every patient/customer you interact with.

Here and now is the best time to get someone vaccinated.

If they can't do it now, offer to book an appointment.

Recommendation increases the likelihood of getting a COVID-19 vaccine by more than 60%[1].

Did you know?

- It is safe to administer influenza and COVID-19 vaccinations at the same time.
- It is safe and recommended to vaccinate against influenza and COVID-19 at any stage of pregnancy and while breast/chest feeding.
- Influenza vaccination is for anyone 6 months and older.
- COVID-19 vaccination is for anyone 5 years and older.
- Vaccination helps keep individuals and the community safe.

For more information visit www.wnswphn.org.au/coronavirus

[1]https://www.abs.gov.au/statistics/people/people-and-communities/household-impacts-covid-19-survey/dec-2020

While the Australian Government helped fund this document, it has not reviewed the content and is not responsible for any injury, loss or damage however arising from the use of or reliance on the information provided herein.

phn WESTERN NSW

An Australian Government Initiative

Did you know?

You can get your flu and COVID-19 vaccinations at the same time!

Book your vaccination today.

People at highest risk of severe illness and hospitalisation from flu and COVID-19 are those who have not been vaccinated.

It is recommended to vaccinate against:

- flu and COVID-19, at any stage of pregnancy and while breast/chest feeding
- flu, for anyone 6 months and older
- COVID-19, for anyone 5 years and older.

Vaccination helps keep you and your community safe.

For more information ask your health professional.

While the Australian Government helped fund this document, it has not reviewed the content and is not responsible for any injury, loss or damage however arising from the use of or reliance on the information provided herein.

phn WESTERN NSW

An Australian Government Initiative