

Primary Care CPD Event

Invitation

An Australian Government Initiative

Emerging medico-legal issues for you and your practice

This session will promote discussion about medico-legal risk management in everyday practice, through the analysis of relevant case studies.

- Case Study 1 will focus on what is new to the consent process in 2019
- Case Study 2 will focus on the theme 'to write or not to write? That is the question!' and provides a platform to examine medical records and the expected standard alongside, patient follow up and recall.

Presented by: Emma Gibson

Emma works in the Risk Advisory Service where she offers advice and guidance on a range of current topical issues affecting Doctors and practices throughout Australia
