

Otitis Media Management Program

Incorporating Accredited Units
EHHAEH001 and EHHPEH002

The Otitis Media Management Program is a nationally accredited program and is fully funded by the federal Department of Health under the Ear and Hearing Health Project.

- Date: Friday, 14 June 2019
8.45am - approx. 4.30pm
- Venue: Western NSW PHN
187 Brisbane Street
DUBBO, NSW 2830
- Cost: No Cost (registration essential – see below)

Register early as places are limited and will fill quickly.
To register - CLICK HERE

The Otitis Media Management Program is designed to develop the knowledge and skills required for Professionals working in Indigenous health to safely assess the aural health of individuals and implement best practice management guidelines.

At the successful completion of this program the clinician should:

- Have knowledge and understanding of the anatomy and physiology of the ear
- Be able to perform a comprehensive ear health assessment
- Recognise abnormalities of the auditory system
- Recognise the need for refer to medical staff or specialist
- Give the patient a comprehensive explanation of examination findings
- Document the examination findings and outcome in the patient's history.

This program is available to Registered and Enrolled Nurses, General Practitioners, Audiometrists, Indigenous Health Care Workers, and Allied Health Care Workers.

This program has been endorsed by APNA according to approved quality standards criteria

This program has been endorsed by the Hearing Aid and Audiometry Society of Australia No. CPED2015/07.

This program has been accredited by the Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine.