

Western NSW PHN Aboriginal Health Checklist

Our Practice Support and Improvements team have a strong focus on Indigenous Health. Our main aim as a team is to Empower General Practice & Aboriginal Medical Service Teams in our region to deliver best patient health outcomes.

We have developed an Aboriginal Health Initiatives pack for General Practices including;

	Marrabinya Information
1	Service overview and its key features
1	Eligibility criteria
1	Brokerage services included in program
1	Assessing the Marrabinya service
2	Referral forms for Marrabinya
3	Installing the current referral template into clinical software

	Closing the Gap Practice information for Practice Incentive Payments
4	Supporting practices to identify patients and promote 'asking the question'
5	Understand what CTG PIP purpose
6	Register patients with current forms
7	Access Cultural Awareness or Cultural Safety training where available or encourage some online learning.

	Other support/resources offered in Aboriginal Health Model include but not limited to
8	Cultural Awareness booklet from RACGP
9	My Health Record story books for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients
10	Aboriginal Kids- A healthy start to life resource from NSW government
11	Australian Government resources specific to Aboriginal and Torres strait island patients for waiting room and GP to give to patients on cancer, cervical cancer, Indigenous Chronic Disease
12	Australian Government/ Cancer Australia booklets for patients on My Breast cancer journey and My lung cancer pathway.
13	Navigating the MBS for patient management including 715
14	Chronic Disease clinics focusing on preventative Health
15	Working with the stolen Generation- GP fact sheet
16	Five steps towards excellent Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander healthcare RACGP
17	Aboriginal Business Case scenario
18	PDSA Adding Aboriginal Status QI activity
19	Health Acronyms and abbreviations

